*5 districts reported no homeless students

Student counted once per district; student could be counted in multiple districts.

Families in Transition 2015-16

Thank you!

Together, you and the Erlanger Elsmere team have identified and referred over 320 children to the Families in Transition program. You have given a voice to children who have no place of their own to call home.

275 lost their housing and had to stay with friends or relatives of those:

14 fled their homes due to domestic violence

76 lost their only source of family income

87 couldn't find affordable housing

9 moved due to uninhabitable housing

61 moved due to their parent's inability to take care of them

Another 11 reported living at a motel, while

25 went to live in a shelter

Temporary Living Arrangements

The following questions address the McKinney-Vento Act 42 U.S.C. 11435. Answers to these questions will help determine services the student may be eligible to receive.

Is the student's current address a temporary living arrangement? ___No ___Yes

Is this temporary living arrangement due to loss of housing or economic hardship? ___No ___Yes

If the answer to both of the above questions is Yes, the student is entitled to immediate enrollment.

Please indicate where the student is living: ___In a motel/hotel ___Unaccompanied youth ___In a homeless shelter
___Doubled up with family or friend ___Other (a place not designed for ordinary sleeping accommodations)

This is a great tool to assist you in talking to the family about their transitional housing situation

When they indicate their temporary housing situation, you can:

- Put them at ease
- Ask more in-depth questions with greater sensitivity and understanding
- Provide them with information regarding FiT services
- Inform them of school of origin rights

Homeless Children & Youth Are Facing

The poverty, mobility, and unsafe living conditions that accompany homelessness subject young children to a steady barrage of stress during critical development years, resulting in higher than average rates of:

- Food insecurity
- Development delays/learning impairments
- Acute and chronic health problems
- Behavioral and emotional challenges
- Exposure to domestic violence

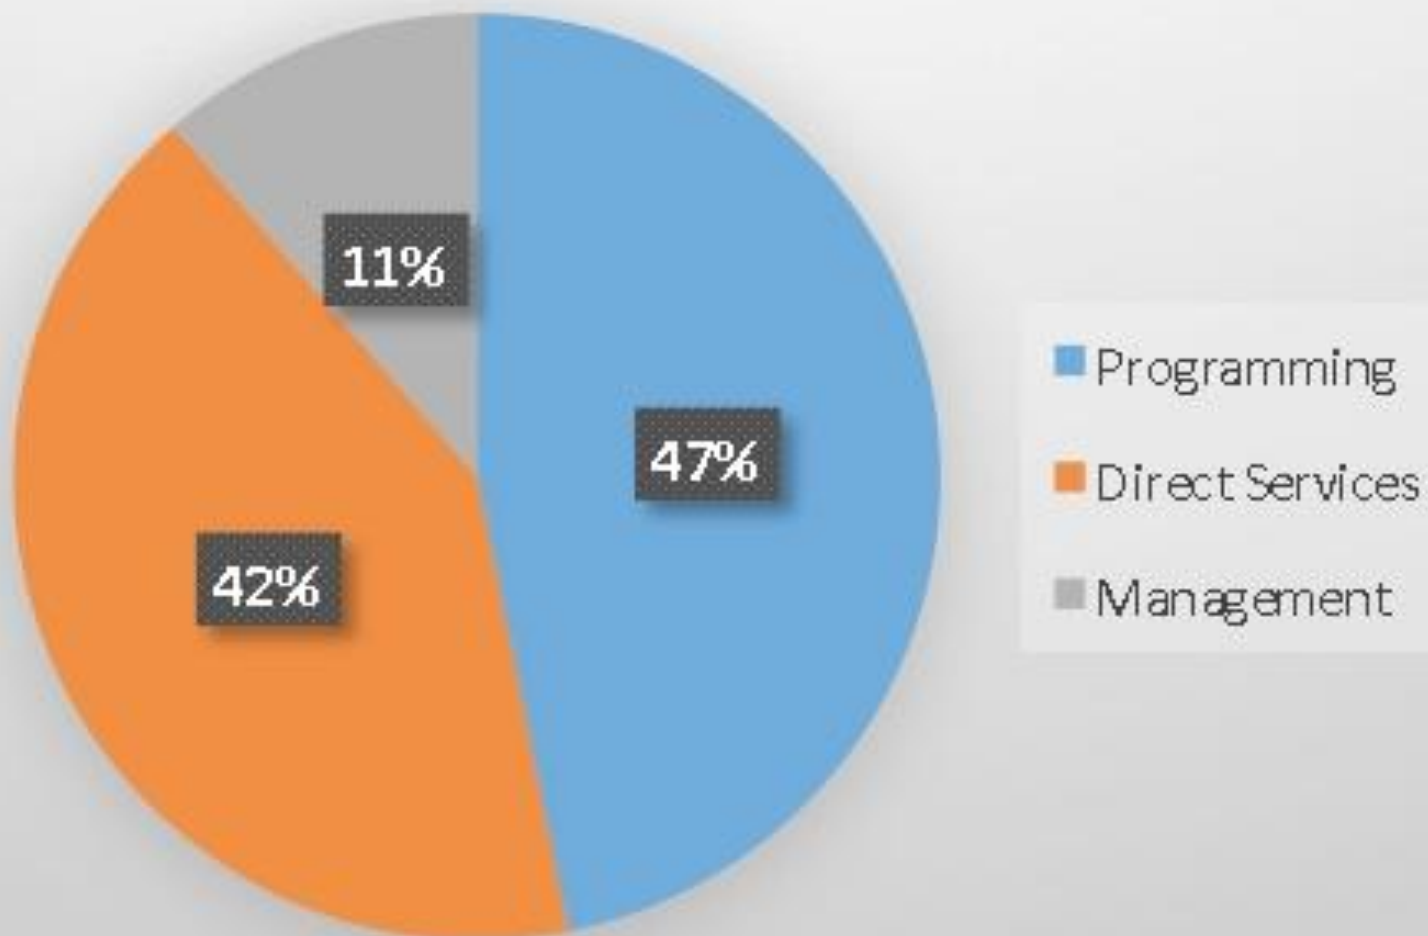

Homeless Children & Youth Are Facing

Unaccompanied youth without a caring adult have higher rates of:

- Mental health and substance abuse issues
- Criminal victimization, including rape, assault, and human trafficking
- Criminal activity related to survival
- Pregnancy and sexually transmitted disease
- Barriers to employment
- Suicide
